Introduction

Ezekiel 37.10

1. An army of dry bones (Eze 37.1-3)

- Ezekiel- part of the remnant of Israel that was in exiled to Babylon in 597 BC.
- Eze 33-48: Oracles of consolations for nation of Israel.
- Eze 37: Prophet brought to a valley of dry bones

2. An army formed by the Word and Spirit (Eze 37.4-10)

“prophesy” appears 7 times

“wind/spirit/breath” appears 10 times (“ruach”)

3. An army to know the King and make him known (Eze 37.11-14)

Cf. Eze 37.24-28

Implications & Response

1. Are we rising up as the King’s mighty army?
2. Are we continually being formed by the Word, and filled by the Spirit?
3. Are we focused on the mission to know the King and make him known?
